Tells Everybody To

"Let Go and Get Right"

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 23.—The cure for the present degeneration and demoralization, which seems to be an aftermath of the war, can come only when each person has mastered his own evil impulses," says Otto Wolf, Newport, in response to a query as to the remedies for the present wave of lawlessness throughout the country.

Crimes of violence and liquor violations are discussed by Mr. Wolf and he offers many suggestions for their suppression. His theory is embodied in the negro phrase, "Everybody let go and get right," and he believes that this ultimately will right the world.

CANNOT SEE HORSELESS AGE

(By Associated Press)

Lexington, Ky., Feb. 24.—While tractor concerns and other advocates of power farming are predicting the arrival of the day when "the horse will vanish and be at rest," members of the Kentucky Horse Breeders' Association are showing considerable confidence in the belief that old Dobbin need have little worry about his feed being cut off and himself turned out into the road to make way for an "iron mule."

According to a statement made here today by their secretary W. S. Anderson, members of the association see the next few years, with their accompanying demands for economy in farm production, as an opportunity for the horse to prove his worth as a farm power unit for all times to come.

In calling attention to the prediction to a horseless age, Mr. Anderson, who is a well known specialist on horse feeding and breeding at the Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station, said, "The statement made that in 1921 the trucks on the farms of the United States numbered 134,169 while the number of tractors was 246,139, as compared to the number of horses which was 17,000,000. Arthur Brisbane, in making the statement adds, 'When the farmer what the tractor can do and the government interests in careful tests and co-operative use of farm machinery, the horse will vanish and be at rest.'"

In commenting on the statement, the association's secretary continued, "There are more than 6,000,000 farms in the United States with about one tractor for each 25 farms. In Kentucky there are 600,000 farms and less than 2,500 tractors. Few or no tractors were bought last year in the state and few will be bought this year. 'The tractors did help out in the rush of production and scarcity of labor during the war but since the prime consideration in farm production now is economy, even the tractors already on the farms are doing less work while the old horse and mule are doing more.'"

The increasing use which farmers are making of horses and mules in hauling their tobacco to Central Kentucky markets this year is seen by Mr. Anderson as further proof that the horse will never be replaced on the farm.

"For the past two years, much of the tobacco in Central Kentucky was hauled to the market on trucks but this year, the farm horses and mules are bringing in the crop," he continued. "By means of wagons and horses, tobacco can be marketed for an expenditure of little or no ready cash whereas the truck man demanded not only cash for his work, but also an excessive price."

"My prediction is that not only will the horse and mule never be replaced on the farm but also that as farms become smaller, fewer and fewer farmers will be able to utilize tractors economically and will depend upon work stock for their farming operations."

"It is sheer nonsense to talk about the tractor replacing work stock on the farm when a machine that costs something like $1,000 replaces only two horses or mules whose value is $100 to $150 apiece," Mr. Anderson said in discussing figures obtained by the college farm management department relative to the efficiency of horses and tractors. "These figures show that if a farm requires ten horses to perform the necessary work and a tractor is brought in, eight horses still will be required."

"The sooner that manufacturers of farm machinery and business men realize that the tractor has limitations, the better it will be for business and for farming itself," Mr. Anderson concluded.

OFFICIAL FIGURES ON FARMERS' EARNINGS

(By Associated Press)

New York, Feb. 24.—The American farmer, who rose to unprecedented heights of prosperity in 1918 and 1919, earned less in 1920 than he has earned in any year of the last ten, if his income is reckoned in dollars having the same purchasing power as in 1913 according to estimates made today by the National Bureau of Economic Research.

Reckoned in actual dollars paid to him in 1920, the farmers' income, as shown by the report, was less than in the three previous years; but was greater than in the seven years from 1910 to 1916, inclusive.

The figures, taken from a detailed report of an exhaustive national survey, showed that the country's 6,450,000 farmers, in 1920, earned approximately $7,200,000,000—a drop of $3,630,000,000 from their income for the year before.

The farmers, who represent about 16 per cent of the gainfully employed, have received during the past decade a share in the total national income varying between 12.3 per cent in 1911, and 17.4 in 1917 and 1918, until 1920, when it dropped to 10.9 per cent.

The farmer's share, in billions of dollars and per cent of the total, is estimated by the Bureau to have been in each year beginning with 1910, as follows:

"It will be seen that in 1920 the farmers fell farther than the rest of those gainfully employed. They had further to fall. What the results may have been in 1921 cannot yet be determined because while farmers again suffered heavy losses, the rest of the country also ran into a period of severe depression."

Lexington, Ky., Feb. 24.—In line with recent developments in junior agricultural club work, farm boys and girls of the state club, authorities of the College of Agriculture announced today, that hereafter club members could be recognized by a standard badge. Complete shipments of the new buttons have arrived and will be distributed to the more than 20,000 members in the state in the near future. The button is small circular enameled one bearing the words "Kentucky Junior Agricultural Clubs," in a blue border. In the center the "four-H" clover leaf signifying the pledging of head, heart, hands, and health to better efforts thru club work, is shown in green.

WAS CHRIST THE KING OF THE JEWS?

Messrs. Editors of the Richmond Daily Register:

Please publish the enclosed article entitled: "Was Christ the King of the Jews?"

St. Paul tells us in the 11th chapter of Romans, that because of their "unbelief" God broke the majority of the Jews off from the "good olive tree" of which they were the "root," and cast them away, in order that we Gentiles might be grafted into the good olive tree among the believing Jews. But that He would graft the castaway Jews back into "their own olive tree" if they "abide not still in unbelief."

St. Paul also tells in this 11th chapter of Romans that "Blindness in part is happened unto Israel until the fulness of the Gentiles be come in."

And I think that if we Gentiles enable the castaway Jews to see that the Bible teaches that Christ was JEHOVAH, they will believe that he was "The King of the Jews" and be grafted back into the good olive tree. For JEHOVAH teaches the Jews that He is their "King" when he says in Isaiah 43:15, "I am the Lord, your Holy One, the creator of Israel, your King."

So I have written the enclosed article, in which I think I can show that the Bible teaches that Christ was JEHOVAH, and want you to publish it, in the hope that we may thereby enable some of the castaway Jews to see that the Bible teaches that Christ was JEHOVAH.

St. Paul teaches us in this 11th chapter of Romans, why God blinded the majority of the Jews, in part, and then broke them off from the good olive tree, because of their unbelief, in these words:—"As ye in times past have not believed God, yet have now obtained mercy through their unbelief, even so have these also now not believed, though through your mercy, they also may obtain mercy. For God hath concluded all in unbelief that he might have mercy upon all."

Furthermore, St. Paul teaches that the receiving of the castaway Jews back into the good olive tree will result in great good to the world when he says in the 15th verse of this 11th chapter of Romans: "If the casting of them away be the reconciling of the world, what shall the receiving of them be, but life from the dead?"

Hoping that you will publish the enclosed article, I am, Most respectfully yours,

MRS. JAMES BENNETT

WAS CHRIST THE KING OF THE JEWS?

By MRS. JAMES BENNETT, RICHMOND, KENTUCKY.

In the 19th chapter of St. Paul, the New Testament says: "Pilate wrote a title, and put it on the cross. And the writing was JESUS OF NAZARETH THE KING OF THE JEWS." This title then read many of the Jews, for the place where Jesus was crucified was nigh to the city, and it was written in Hebrew and Greek and Latin. Then said the chief priests of the Jews to Pilate, "Write not, The King of the Jews; but that he said, I am the King of the Jews."

Since the Old Testament teaches that JEHOVAH is the King of the Jews, it is evident that if Christ was not JEHOVAH, he was not the King of the Jews.

And I believe that the Bible teaches that Christ was JEHOVAH and that he therefore was the King of the Jews.

I do not think it is true, as some persons claim that the Bible teaches that God is three persons in one: a Father, a Son and an Holy Spirit; that JEHOVAH is the Father and Christ a divine Son of JEHOVAH.

The New Testament does not teach, as some persons claim, that Jesus Christ was a divine son of JEHOVAH when it calls him "the Son of God." Because men are called "the Son of God," both in the Old and in the New Testament. For instance in Genesis 6:2, and in 1 John 3:2.

And the New Testament does not teach, as some persons claim, that Jesus was a divine son of JEHOVAH, when it says that after Jesus was baptized a voice from heaven said:—"This is my beloved son in whom I am well pleased." Because God called Israel his son when he said in Exodus 4:22, "Israel is my son even my first born."

Moreover, since every son comes into existence after his father, God declared that he did not have and never would have a divine son, when he said in Isaiah 43:10, 11—"Before me there was no God formed: neither shall there be after me: I, even I am the Lord, and beside me there is no Saviour."

I think that the Bible teaches that God is one person: that one of his names is JEHOVAH: that in the time of the Apostles he personated the character of a divine son of himself, by taking upon him the form of a man, and acting the part of one: and that he was called Christ Jesus.

For St. Paul teaches that "Christ Jesus" was in the form of "God" and equal to him, before he took upon himself the form of a man, when he says in the 2nd of Philipians: "Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus. Who being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God, but made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men. And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross."

St. Paul teaches that Christ Jesus was "God manifest in the flesh" when in alluding to him he says in 1 Timothy 3:16—"Without controversy great is the mystery of Godliness. God was manifest in the flesh: justified in the Spirit; seen in Angels; preached unto the Gentiles; believed on in the world; received up into glory."

And St. Paul teaches that Christ Jesus was JEHOVAH, when in alluding to him as he says in the 10th chapter of 1st Corinthians, that "Christ" was the "Rock" who followed the Israelites in their passage through the sea. Because God declares in the 2nd and 3rd verses of the 6th chapter of Exodus, that he is "the Lord," and that one of his names is "JEHOVAH," and Moses says in the 32nd chapter of Deuteronomy that "the name of the Lord is the Rock."

St. Paul says in the 10th chapter of 1st Corinthians that Christ was the "Rock" who followed the Israelites in their passage through the sea, in these words:—"Brethren I would not that ye shall be ignorant how all our fathers were under the cloud; and all passed through the sea; and were all baptized unto Moses in the cloud and in the sea; and did all eat the same spiritual meat; and did all drink the same spiritual drink: for they drank of that spiritual Rock that followed them, and that Rock was Christ."

"When I say that I weigh 25 pounds more than I did a short time ago it speaks volumes for the merit of Tanlac," said Jos. B. Drake, 430 Belmont avenue, Springfield, Mass.

"The first thing Tanlac did for me was to give me an appetite and tone up my stomach. It wasn't long before I was eating things I hadn't dared touch for years and anyone to see the hearty way I eat now would find it hard to believe that a few weeks ago I was dyspeptic and living on the lightest kind of diet."

"Another good thing Tanlac did for me was to drive the rheumatism almost entirely out of my system. In fact, I can truthfully say it has made me feel like a new man in every way. It certainly is a grand medicine."

Tanlac is sold in Richmond by Stockton and Son, and leading druggists.

Williams Directs Own Film

Earle Williams takes double pride in "Bring Him In," shown at local theatres Saturday, for in addition to being the star of the picture, he is also, in conjunction with Robert Ensinger, the director of the piece. The story is a stirring drama of the Royal Mounted Police and is regarded as one of the best Earle Williams productions to date. It is different from the average Earle Williams feature, for the star, who is so frequently portrayed as the polished, dress-suited hero takes the role of a man who can live in the open, ride hard and fight equally well with gun or fists.

INTER-SOCIETY CONTESTS TO BE HELD SOON

(From Eastern Progress)

The announcement by the Literary Society Advisers of the date of the inter-society declamatory contests has been made and everyone is getting ready for March 31 and April 1. This contest will decide the representatives of Eastern in the Eastern Kentucky Oratorical Association meeting.

The first meeting of the Association was held at Eastern in 1920. The Association is composed of Sue Bennett Memorial School of London; Union College of Barbourville; Normal Department of Berea College; Asbury College Academy of Wilmore; Cumberland College of Williamsburg; and Eastern.

The contestants from Eastern have always been very successful in these meetings. In 1920, Miss Bronston, an Eastern student of the Utopia Society, won the first prize. Last year the Association met at Sue Bennett Memorial School and Eastern carried off first honors in each contest. Miss Pauline Voss of the Periclesian Society and Mr. Sam Denny, of the Periclesian Society, were the winners. We know that we will be just as successful this year—for Eastern always comes out on top.

More school spirit is shown in these contests than is shown for any other occasion on the campus. On the night of the contests the members of the different societies assemble in the chapel, each society sitting together. Society songs and recitations follow with vigor and pep. It is a very exciting time.

Come on, Eastern, let's win this year!

The Girls' Declamatory Contest on March 31, and the Boys' Oratorical Contest on April 1, will mark two of the greatest events of the year for Eastern. The seven societies on the campus: Utopian, Excelsior, Columbian, Periclesian, Cynthia, Cambridge and Washington will each be eligible to put up one contestant in each contest.

The winner from each contest will be sent to Union College, Barbourville, where the Eastern Kentucky Oratorical Association meets later in the spring. This Association was organized two years ago by Prof. R. A. Edwards of Eastern, and he served as its president last year.

BOLSHEVIKI TELLS OF CZAR'S LAST DAYS

(By Associated Press)

Ekaterinburg, Russia, Jan. 25.—Alexandra, the late Empress of Russia, never ceased to chafe under her imprisonment in this city where she was finally executed but the late Emperor Nicholas showed more calmness and indifference to his fate.

A little booklet recently issued by P. Bykoff, former chairman of the Ekaterinburg Soviet, gives many intimate glimpses at the imperial family during the months they were prisoners of the Bolsheviks in this city just preceding their execution in July, 1918.

When the Czar and his wife and part of his family were transferred from Tobolsk to Ekaterinburg by the Soviet government, a residence in the center of the city was assigned to them. It was in the basement of this building that they were shot. A half-prison regime was established which did not interfere with the activities of the imperial family in their own quarters.

Before the Romanoffs were permitted to enter their new quarters the guards searched them. Alexandra protested bitterly and offered physical resistance. The emperor submitted willingly, but was greatly perturbed. He paced the room while the search was proceeding and exclaimed, "The devil knows what it means! Up to now we have met courteous people and have had decent treatment!"

According to Bykoff, the Soviet officials made it clear to the Romanoffs that they were not at Tsarkoe Selo and threats to isolate the emperor from his family if he offered criticism silenced him.

"Nicholas soon realized we were not joking," says the book, "and submitted uncomplainingly to the demands of the commandant in charge of the house. He made few efforts to chat with the guards, but Alexandra, never ceased breaking rules."

The Romanoffs were permitted to select their own hours for walking in the garden where all sorts of tools were available if they cared to take more vigorous physical exercise. Two meals a day were supplied to them from the "best Soviet kitchen in Ekaterinburg" and they were given a gasoline primus, or stove, upon which they could heat their food.

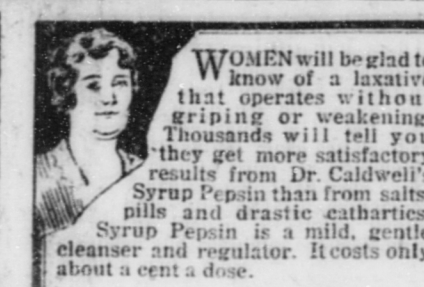

Food packages were forbidden to the imperial family but Bykoff says, "The sisters in the local convent annoyed the guards greatly by sending parcels of biscuits and other delicacies which were distributed among the soldiers."

On Easter the imperial family asked permission to attend church. This request was denied but a priest was admitted to their quarters to hold service and eggs and special cakes were sent to them by Soviet officials.

Noted Whisky Street

Raided, But Little Found
Catlettsburg, Ky., Feb. 24.—Front street, once a noted river mart, and in another epoch pictured in illustrated journals as the most unique block in the United States, because every door led to a bar, was raided by a "flying squadron" of federal officers upon a tip that large whisky operations flourished. Only a few quarts of white mule were found.

McKee Brothers' next breed sow sale in Woodford county is to be held Tuesday, March 14. There is a great shortage of hogs throughout the country and a very strong demand. The McKee's sale last week was the best Duroc hog sale held so far this year in the United States.

WHITE LEGHORNS LEAD IN JANUARY EGGS

(By Associated Press)

Lexington, Feb. 24.—An average production of 20 eggs a hen during January gave a flock of 324 White Leghorns owned by the Carola Single Comb White Leghorn farm of Fayette county the lead in egg production for that month in the project being conducted by 900 farmers who are coöperating with the extension division of the College of Agriculture in increasing the winter egg production of their flocks, according to an announcement made today by J. H. Martin in charge of the college poultry work. This flock was the leading one in the group composed of those having more than 200 hens.

Fayette county had the leading flock for the month in each of the three divisions of the project, according to the announcement. Frank Shepherd owned the leading one in the group composed of flocks having from 50 to 199 hens, his 50 White Wyandottes having averaged 19.7 eggs each during the month. In the group composed of flocks having less than 50 hens, a flock owned by E. B. McQuown of 21 mixed hens, was the leading one, these birds having averaged 19 eggs each during the month.

The remaining owners of high-producing flocks in the groups composed of flocks having more than 200 hens, together with the number of hens and their average production follow:

Mrs. Edward C. Tyler, Jefferson county, 200 White Leghorns, 11 eggs; Mrs. Robert Matherly, Washington county, 250 White Leghorns, 9.4 eggs; Mrs. Herman Spiesberger, Jefferson county, 202 White Leghorns, 9 eggs; Ben Miller, Breckinridge county, 207 White Leghorns, 7.8 eggs.

Other leaders in the second division were: Mrs. Ola Wilson, Ohio county, 50 Rhode Island Reds, 16.6 eggs; Mrs. J. Hughes, Ohio county, 60 White Plymouth Rocks, 16.8 eggs; L. C. Denhardt, McLean county, 175 Barred Plymouth Rocks, 16.6 eggs; Mrs. E. W. Jackson, Simpson county, 52 Rhode Island Reds, 14.9 eggs.

Among the leaders in the third division were: Mrs. L. H. Wilkins, Todd county, 35 hens, 16 eggs; Mrs. Florence Reeder, of Simpson county, 26 White Plymouth Rocks, 17 eggs; O. W. Brown, Nelson county, 8 Barred Plymouth Rocks, 19 eggs, and Mrs. Celestia B. White, Ohio county, 22 White Wyandottes, 17 eggs.

"Do you ever quarrel with your husband?"

"It is some time since I have taken Doan's Kidney Pills," says Mr. Sturn. "I took them for back-ache that had been bothering me for quite a while. There was a dull ache across the small of my back and mornings when I got up I was sore across my hips and it would hurt me to stoop over to get anything. I took a box of Doan's Kidney Pills and they cured me. I have never had to take anything since then."

EASTERN BASKETEERS ON LONGEST TRIP

Eastern's basketball team is on its longest trip of the season at present which carries her into western Kentucky. She played Western Normal at Bowling Green Thursday night and met
the Bowling Green Business University in the same place Friday night. Before leaving Coach Hembree had not arranged for the final game of the trip for certain but it will either be with Ogden College at Bowling Green or with Bethel College at Russellville. One of these games is sure to be played before returning home. Eastern has won her last five games with ease. Great work was featured in all of her victories. The men to take the trip were Stephenson, Clark, Byrd, Hall, Mainous, Amburgey,
and Williams besides Coach Hembree. The Eastern girls play one game on the trip and that with the Western Normal girls.

Eastern has been improving steadily in all departments since early in the season. She is passing a great deal better. This has helped her wonderfully in her last few victories. The Maroon and White has been improving so rapidly that Coach Hembree believes as well as the whole school that Eastern will lose no more games this season. A clean up of the western trip is predicted
by critics.

Says Increase Penalties
(By Associated Press)
Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 23—L.
Lewis Williams, Glasgow, commonwealth's Attorney for the

the best way to stop crimes of violence and liquor law violations
is to increase the penalty now given convictions in such cases.
He also suggests that a law be enacted, if possible, to allow nine members of a petit jury to convict a man in misdemeanor prosecutions.

ROUND UP GANG OF SHOPLIFTERS

"Dashing Dora" Leader of Notorious Band of Fashionable Berlin Robbers.

LOOT OVER MILLION DOLLARS

Every Step of Police Investigation of Gang Results in Fresh Sensational Disclosures—Eight
Are in Custody.

Berlin.—White slave traffic, the morphia habit and the practice of blackmail were joined to theft, fraud
and kleptomani in the "Danse Maca-bre" of the band of Berlin shoplifters
led by "Dashing Dora."

Every step of the police investigation of the activities of this gang,
eight of whom are in custody, results in fresh sensational disclosures.
Several members of the band plead that they are addicted to the drug habit and are not responsible for their acts. Mrs. Foerster, one of Dora's
"dashing" daughters, is in the hospital, suffering from morphia poison. Her husband was arrested as he was in the act of concealing stolen property valued at several thousand dollars.

Louise Morvilius, her sister, has been released from custody in order that she may go to her sick child, but not before she had confessed to the police that for years she has been a white slave for her husband, Frank Morvilius, who is director of the German disposal board.

Earlier raids have been made by the police on the luxurious homes of "Dashing Dora" and her accomplices,
and the enormous pile of stolen goods
at Charlottenberg police station has received considerable attention.

Confiscate Bank Accounts.
The bank accounts of the gang,
which amount to many thousands of pounds, have been confiscated.

Morvilius has pleaded that his mother-in-law is the victim of klep-tomania.
It has been alleged against Morvilius
that he heavily bribed the police in order to avoid arrest.

Members of the gang, who were caught with $200,000 worth of stolen goods in their possession, have terrorized the largest Berlin luxury stores for many years, and their depredations are estimated to exceed $1-000,000 in value. Most of the property was disposed of in Holland, though a considerable quantity is believed to have found its way to Britain, France and America.

Charlottenburg police station resembled a great warehouse. There were piles of china and leather goods,
jewels and other valuable articles,
which were taken chiefly from a luxurious six-room apartment occupied by "Dashing Dora." This woman now forty-four, who has been twice divorced, is married to a youth of twenty.

"Dashing Dora's" home was raided
by policemen just as the seven criminals were discussing a New Year's present for "the firm," consisting of two limousines with a liveried chauffeur and footmen to assist them in their "profession." Dora and her woman accomplices, who lived like princesses, mixed in the highest society. She is considered the most brazen and cleverest of light-fingered crooks on record.

The list of booty carried off by her gang includes a priceless antique porcelain set of 178 pieces which was lifted piecemeal from an Unter den Linden shop in four visits. An easy job for them was a gold coffee set of thirty-two pieces valued at $5,000.
This was carried off in one visit.

Special Belts Used.
Dora and her friends were equipped with specially constructed leather belts fitted with innumerable hooks to which they attached valuables as they passed through the shops.

The incident which led to the raid
on Dora's home illustrates the gang's audacity. They fell under the suspicion of a salesgirl at one Berlin luxury shop, but they bluffed the manager into an humble apology.
The next day the husbands of the two women visited the shops, indistinctly personified, and flashing 1,000
mark notes in the face of the manager,
they insisted on a written apology
from the salesgirl and the manager himself. This was given, but the manager was afterward struck with the youth of the husbands as compared with their wives. He telephoned for the police, and the gang were arrested.

1,500-YEAR-OLD SHRINE AFIRE

Ancient Jap Temple Said to Have Been Set Afire by Priest—Priceless Relics Lost.

Tokyo.—The Yenyoji temple, erected some 1,500 years ago and one of the richest in historical relics in the empire, has been totally ruined by fire. The amount of the damage has not been estimated, as some of the relics destroyed were almost priceless.
The fire has been traced to a senior priest, who is alleged to have committed the arson out of a desire to end his own life. According to a story carried in the Jiji, the priest, while burning incense before the altar, turned to a fellow priest and asked him to leave the world with him. Upon refusal of his friend to agree to the proposal
he threw the incense box on the floor,
setting fire to the temple.

More Milk!

WHEN you put your herd on the Purina System, you see the results in the milk pail. You make more milk
—you save more milk.

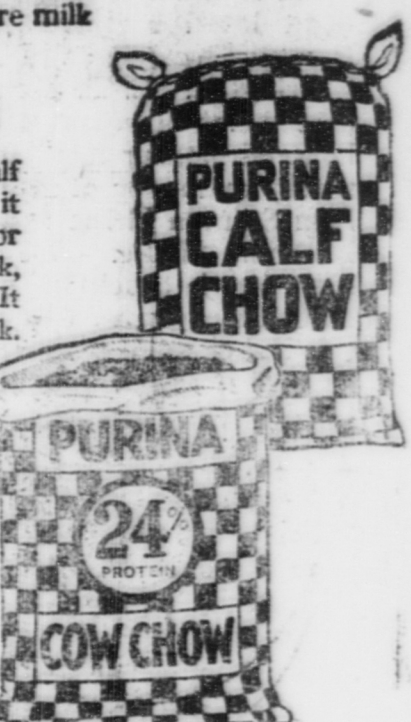

Raise calves at less cost

You can feed a calf on Purina Calf Chow for six months for what it costs to feed it on whole milk for 30 days. After the fifth week, you can feed dry Calf Chow. It saves trouble and saves milk.

Why Purina makes more milk

Cow Chow supplies protein and minerals that are nearly always lacking in the average cow's ration. When you supply all the material needed for milk, naturally, the cow gives more milk. You ought to be getting more milk.

A New Mother-in-Law Joke

A farmer and his wife were out milking. The farmer was busy doing the evening chores
and his wife was milking a cow.
Suddenly a huge bull started for them. The farmer promptly jumped the fence and yelled to his wife to run. But calmly she went on milking. The bull charged up to within a few feet of the woman, stopped, looked at her,
and then, moving away, began nibbling grass. The farmer came back and said to his wife:
"Why didn't you run? Didn't you afraid?"
She replied she was not.
"Why," the farmer asked in astonishment.
"Because," his wife replied, as she proceeded with her work,
"I was milking the bull's mother-in-law."

Ford Rewards Man Who Refused To Sue Road

Napoleon, O., Feb. 23—Because he refused to sue the Detroit, Toledo & Ironport railroad, or to suggest a settlement for injuries received last October, William Piso has been rewarded by Henry Ford, owner of the road. Pi-so was crushed badly in a crossing accident while employed by the railroad. Ford ordered him taken to a hospital where he remained until fully recovered.
Ford then made a proposition to pay his expenses while he was disabled, allow full pay with a bonus and give him a life job as crossing watchman. Piso accepted and begins his duties March 15 at salary of $6 per day of 8 hours and Sundays off.

Dollars and Cents

Counting it only in dollars and cents, how much did that last cold cost you? A man may not always stop work when he has a cold, but perhaps it would be better if he did. It takes about ten days to get completely rid of a cold under the usual treatment.
That time can be much shortened
by taking Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and proper care of yourself, in fact, a bottle of this remedy in the house is a mighty good investment during the winter and spring months. feb

Leavening Strength Tells the Story
The price you pay for baking powder doesn't determine the results you will have on bake day—
the leavening strength that counts.
You may buy a baking powder for less than Calumet and think you are practicing economy. Don't be misled—the bak-ings you spoil will make those that are successful exorbitant in cost.

CALUMET BAKING POWDER

has successfully proven, during the past thirty years, that it contains more than the ordinary leavening strength. That's why bakers where it is employed never fail to raise properly.
Calumet is used by more housewives, leading chefs, domestic scientists, restaurants, hotels and resorts than any other brand. Millions buy it—you should try it.
A pound can of Calumet contains full 16 oz. Some baking powders come in 12 oz. cans instead of 16 oz. cans. Be sure you get a pound when you want it.

A TRIBUTE

On Saturday night, Feb. 11th, 1922, about ten-thirty o'clock, at a hospital in Atlanta, Ga., Jesus sent one of His messengers of love for another of Richmond's former citizens, Mr. Edmund Burnam Hume, the last of eight loved brothers of Mrs. Harvey Chenault and Mrs. L. B. Herrington. E. B. Hume was a descendant of some of the most honored pioneer families of Kentucky and a son of the late William Stanton Hume and Eugenia Burnam Hume. He married Miss Nettie Stockton, a sister of R. C. Stockton, of this place. Of this union there were three children, Edward Stockton, Mary Curtis and Eugenia Burnam. The little Mary passed away

Chronic Constipation

There are people who never have a movement of the bowels without it is produced by a cathartic. Most of them have brought that condition on themselves by the use of mineral waters and strong cathartics that take too much water out of the system and aggravate the disease they are meant to relieve. A mild laxative tonic like Chamberlain's Tablets affords a gentle movement of the bowels that you hardly realize has been produced by a medicine, and their use is not so likely to be followed by constipation.

WOULD RATHER FIGHT THAN WORK

"I suffered for years with stomach trouble and could not eat and just hated for any one to say work to me. I would rather fight. Since taking a course of May's Wonderful Remedy I actually want to work, and talk about eat. I am the last one to leave the table now." It is a simple harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. H. L. Perry and Son and druggists everywhere. — It some years ago. Mr. Hume was born in Warrensburg, Missouri, sixty-one years ago. He was a member of the Presbyterian church and clung with childlike faith to the hand that led him through many dark hours and many trials. His gentle, noble character endeared him to all thrown with him. We extend our deepest sympathy to his devoted wife, son, daughter and sisters. We pray that his God may be their stay and comfort in their hour of grief.

VICTIMS RUSH TO MEET SWINDLERS

Worthless Certificates Are Eagerly Grabbed Up by Innocent Dupes.

G.I. STOCKS STILL SELLING

Modern Inventions Help Crooked Salesmen Unload Stock on Unsuspecting Buyers—"Wildcat" Brokers Make Fortunes.

New York.—In years gone by, the gold brick artists and oil stock salesmen were so successful that P. T. Barnum once remarked that a "sucker is born every minute." Today, with modern inventions and a public just as eager to be "sung," the "suckers" find the birth rate even higher, and their profits are so much the greater. It has been estimated that in the last year more than $800,000,000 has been thrown away by the people of the United States on "wildcat" schemes that range from oil stock to making metal from horse hoof parings and extracting gold from sea water. According to statistics, there are more "suckers" in the country today than Mr. Barnum imagined.

During the last year, hundreds of stock brokers have been arrested in various cities for selling "wildcat" stocks. In many cases, however, the "brokers" were tipped off that they were being watched and, like the Arabs, they folded their tents and silently stole away. With them went the money of ministers, department store clerks, stenographers, telephone operators, housewives and small business men. There are at the present time, it is estimated, approximately 1,000 "bucket shops" in the United States. These 1,000 shops are to remain open, they must have $100 a day each, which, in a year of 300 days, means an income of $300,000,000 annually for office expense alone. This is to meet the expense of wire and teletype services and blackboard boys, with the gullible paying the cost.

A favorite trick of the bogus stock salesman is to secure from the telephone list or directory the names of physicians, ministers, and school teachers. The salesman makes a call and, by his persuasive voice, is usually able to sell at least ten shares of a certain stock for $1 a share. A few days later another agent calls and offers $2 a share for the stock, but the buyer, instead of reselling, buys more stock from the second salesman. The stock salesman then disappears and the buyer realizes that warpage is much cheaper than the paper he has purchased.

A mushroom bucketshop in Philadelphia a year ago played a wonderful game while it lasted. Out of the telephone directory the operators took 2,000 names, and to these addresses they sent trade letters. To 1,000 of the addresses these so-called brokers stated that a certain stock was due for a sudden rise. To the other 1,000 persons went similar letters stating that this self-same stock was due for a fall. In this manner, the bucketshop keepers made 1,000 friends who thought the brokers knew what they were talking about when the stocks did go up. This was followed by telephone calls for orders and many shares were purchased. The 1,000 persons who were told the stock would go down were not bothered again. The following day out went 1,000 letters to the ones to whom the "guess-right" letters had been sent. In this instance, 500 letters predicted an advance in the stock and to the remainder went word of a decline. This left 500 customers who would by this time swear by the "prophecies." When the list was completed, and the brokers had made a nice haul, new names were taken from the telephone directory and the process repeated.

Prominent Names a Factor.

A favorite trick of the stock swindlers—that is the mushroom variety that bloom overnight, fleece the "inquirers," and then depart either to a prison cell or parts unknown—is to adopt the trade name of prominent deceased bankers, or the name of a building in which they establish luxurious furnished suites. Then they sit back and listen to the dollars clinking into their coffers from the pockets of the unsuspecting, who believe they are dealing with the sons of the financial wizards of a generation ago.

Any secret process to manufacture anything is one of the favorite foundations on which to construct a swindle. It seems to cloak charlatanism and furnish a tempting appeal to human credulity. Not long ago a company was formed in one of the large eastern cities to make cosmic bearings for automobiles and airplanes. The process was to be kept secret, it being decided not to even patent the process because of the danger of its being stolen.

When the secret was revealed at a directors' meeting after the proper amount of stock had been disposed of, it read as follows: "To 100 pounds of metal add four ounces of horse-hoof parings, three ounces of borax, two ounces of powdered glass, and one ounce of sea salt. After copper, lead, and tin are fluid, put in horse-hoof parings and stir well, then add glass, borax, and sea salt combined, then stir."

A Good Formula.

Not the least amusing thing in relation to the formula was that it is all

"BEHEADED" MAN NOW O. K.

Knife of Chinese Executioner Only Wounds Bandit—He Gets Pardon and Is Healed.

Shanghai, Kansu Province.—One Wong Ah-yi, not so long ago a captured bandit under sentence of death in this little Chinese community, walks the streets a free man today, and his is a figure that commands a certain measure of awe and respect due to odd circumstances.

With six companions he was captured while engaged in a lawless enterprise and, in accordance with the swift justice of the Chinese, he and the other six were promptly convicted and led out to be executed. The heads of the six were quickly chopped off, but by a mischance when the knife descended upon Wong's neck it did not sever the head but merely inflicted a gaping wound. This was taken as a sign that some special spirit was acting as Wong's guardian and neither the executioner nor any other dared again swing the knife.

Wong was taken to the yamen of the magistrate, who also was impressed, so much so that the official not only granted the culprit a full pardon, but he also gave Wong a letter of introduction to those in charge of the mission hospital. The Christian doctor in charge there restored Wong to well-being and so he goes about today a free man and one to be respected.

BIG JAP STUDENT TOO MUCH

Washington Freshman Tried to Haze Him, but He Was Too Strong.

Seattle, Wash.—All Japanese are not easy marks, as fifteen boys of the freshmen class at the State university here can testify.

Last fall a real sport matriculated in the person of Taizo Ogawa, a burly Japanese boy, who stands nearly 6 feet high. He is a giant in strength too, and had been employed all summer in a railroad section gang in Montana. He is thirty years old and has been in America ten years.

This year he decided to enter the university to study engineering, and as soon as the freshmen learned of this they planned to haze him.

The plan failed. More than thirty-five of the young bloods of the university captured the Japanese and attempted to shake him. He broke one boy's nose, blacked more eyes than he has fingers and toes, tore a part of the scalp off Andrew Barker and severely injured eleven other boys. At least 15 of the class were unable to resume school work, while the smiling face of Ogawa appeared as usual in the classroom.

LONDON CLUBS GOING BROKE

Times Are Hard and Members Are Sending in Resignations by Hundreds.

London.—London clubland has for a long time been in a bad way financially, and something like a crisis seems to have set in at the end of the year. It is said that resignations from prominent clubs have been pouring in by hundreds, and that club secretaries are at their wits' end how to carry on. One club has already sent out an S. O. S. to its members, begging them to pay their dues for 1922 during the current month, failing which there will be a foreclosure on the club premises.

Old Couple.

Atlanta, Tex.—Living upon the plantation of V. D. Glass, near here, is a negro couple who are believed to be the oldest man and wife in the state. Joe Knight is one hundred and nine years old and his wife is one hundred and eight years old. They were married in slavery times eighty-five years ago. "Uncle Joe," as he is called, still potters around the farm.

"Black Handers" After Capital Society Women

Washington, Feb. 24.—Federal agents and Washington police were combing the country today in an effort to apprehend persons who for weeks have been sending threatening letters to society men and women of Washington. Payment of sums ranging from $15,000 to $25,000 under threats of death and dynamiting of their homes was demanded in letters received by Mrs. Thomas F. Walsh, widow of the Montana "Copper King," Mrs. Mary Scott Townsend, Madame Christian Hange, and Henry White, former United States Ambassador to France.

The Independent Woman

is one of the brightest jewels which adorns our modern, economic system. But too often this independence is gained at the cost of health, and the wage-earning woman struggles through her duties, a prey to nervousness, backache, and despondency. Does not her independence then become more of a burden than a joy? Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has helped many such women to regain their zest in life, and will help many more.
